

Peter Jennings

Call 1972

Email peter.jennings@3pb.co.uk

Qualifications

MA Cantab, LLM London McMahon Student of St John's College,
Cambridge

Proceeds of crime and asset forfeiture

Peter Jennings acts in proceeds of crime and asset forfeiture cases.

He has experience of:

- Cash seizure cases both under the new Proceeds of Crime Act 2002 and under the previous legislation
- Applications for restraint orders and for the variation of restraint orders
- Advising on related questions

Proceeds of crime cases involve the civil as well as the criminal jurisdiction and can give rise to human rights issues. Peter is familiar with all of these areas. He has a principally civil practice and has written on civil litigation. He has experience of criminal work generally, both prosecuting and defending, is a member of the Criminal Bar Association and has acted as an Inspector for the Department of Trade and Industry in insider dealing cases. He is an instructor in human rights for the Bar Council, the Criminal Bar Association and the circuit.

Regulatory compliance

Professional regulation and disciplinary matters

Peter has experience in the area of professional disciplinary and liability cases in the clinical and legal context and has held appointments as an Inspector for the Department of Trade and Industry in financial services matters. In clinical cases he has acted in disciplinary matters:

- before the professional conduct committee
- in internal proceedings before the health service authorities
- before employment tribunals.

He also has experience of professional negligence litigation.

Other areas of public law

Peter has acted, both for individuals and for public authorities, in the fields of:

- Food safety
- Licensing

- Trading standards

He has also dealt with other public law areas such as Election law.

Appointments

Accredited Mediation Advocate

Legal Assessor to the General Dental Council

Legal Assessor to the General Medical Council

Master of the Bench (Middle Temple)

Professional Bodies

Criminal Bar Association

Professional Negligence Bar Association

Western Circuit