Qualifications

BA (Dunelm)

Timothy Coombes is one of the most senior and active members of the 3PB family team. Tim's expertise lies equally between the complex and specialised areas of private Children Act work and Finance. He adopts a reasonable and practical approach to litigation and negotiations.

Tim has a wealth of Ancillary Relief experience and regularly conducts cases involving substantial assets and those cases with barely enough to provide for each party dissipating them. Examples of work include:

- All levels of Ancillary Relief involving experts, receivers and foreign complications
- Cohabitation
- Inheritance Act claims
- Pensions
- Trusts (including Trusts of Land and Appointment of Trustees Act issues)
- Professional negligence in the conduct of Ancillary Relief

Children's Act

Tim has vast experience in this field and is well versed in all the recent changes in law including domestic violence issues.

- Contact and residence disputes
- Parental responsibility (both agreements and orders)
- Application to remove from Jurisdiction
- Specific issue and prohibited steps
