

Tom Horder

Call 2004

Email tom.horder@3pb.co.uk

Qualifications

BA (Hons) History, University of Newcastle-Upon-Tyne PGDL and BVC, BPP Law School

Tom Horder is regularly instructed to act and advise in public law and regulatory matters. He has experience acting both for and against local authorities and has a particular interest in cases involving human rights points. Recent examples of his work in this area include the following:

- Appearing before, and advising in relation to a judicial review against, the Care Standards Appeal Tribunal
- Advising and acting for the Chief Constable of Dorset in the force's first contested cash forfeiture case under the Proceeds of Crime Act
- Defending and prosecuting cases under the Dangerous Dogs Act and the Education Act
- Representing a local authority in a Crown Court Appeal against conviction for trading standards offences
- Acting for a Fire Authority in an appeal against a Fire Enforcement Notice
- Representing a taxi driver in an appeal against a decision to revoke his hackney cab licence
- Representing a local Councillor before an internal County Council disciplinary hearing