Court of Protection

In Care and Community Law, and the Court of Protection, Jeremy Warner has:

- Been instructed in contested hearings regarding disputes over P's best interests including questions of residence and format of care provision.
- Acted in property and financial affairs disputes regarding the revocation of Lasting Powers of Attorney when P's attorneys breached their fiduciary duties.
- Acted in property and financial affairs disputes regarding Lasting Powers of Attorney when P was argued to have lacked capacity at the time of execution.
- Acted in health and welfare disputes relating to the deprivation of liberty of a young person with complex PTSD
- Drafted a position statement for a local authority regarding educational provision for P, a young person with autism and global development delay.
- Been instructed in challenges under s.21a Mental Capacity Act 2005 concerning deprivations of liberty safeguards
- Represented a vulnerable client in a dispute between a care home seeking her eviction. The case involved complex medical needs including epilepsy and reliance on total parenteral nutrition, and focused on whether eviction was compatible with her safety.

Recommendations

"I was hugely impressed by Jeremy at the recent inquest. He was proactive, engaged and focussed, cutting to the heart of the key issues. His calm and thoughtful manner was a huge source of reassurance for the family during an incredibly difficult and emotional process. I look forward to instructing Jeremy again in the future".

"I did consider Jeremy's assessment of the relevant issues to be spot on and it was clear that he had gone through the papers with a fine tooth comb and noted pertinent issues. I would be more than happy to instruct you again on matters and will confirm the same to members of my team for their own files."

"Jeremy clearly understood his brief well and had a good knowledge of the vagaries of credit hire and the specifics of this matter. Overall, this was a positive experience and a good outcome for the client, I would happily book him again for such work."

"Jeremy has been very attentive to the details of the case and notified us in good time of any queries he thought the court would raise. He won our case in Court and we would definitely book him in again."

"His communication prior to an up to the hearing was greatly appreciated and which resulted in a settlement moments before the hearing. I will not hesitate to instruct him again."
