

Rhiannon Frowde

Year of Call: 2022

Email Address: rhiannon.frowde@3pb.co.uk

Telephone: 01865 797700/020 7583 8055

Inquests

Rhiannon is developing a strong practice in coronial law, with experience acting for families, medical professionals, and public bodies. She brings a calm and thorough approach to sensitive proceedings and is adept at navigating complex issues of causation and procedure.

Notable experience includes:

- Attending a two-week inquest concerning a death by dangerous driving and joint enterprise, where she maintained a detailed verbatim note to support future insurance litigation.
- Representing the family in a three-day inquest concerning a suicide, where there was reason to suspect the prescribed medication and dosage were a causative element.
- Acting for a GP practice in proceedings where causation was a central issue.
- Providing training to paramedics on witness statements and evidence in coronial proceedings.
- Undertaking advocacy training and shadowing across a range of coronial hearings.

Academic qualifications

- Bar Practice Training Course (BPTC), University of Law
- Masters in Medical Law and Ethics, University of Edinburgh
- LLB Law, King's College London

Scholarships

- Dean's Excellence Scholarship, University of Law
- Winner, Scottish Inter-Varsity Great Medico-Legal Debate, University of Edinburgh

Professional bodies

- Associate, King's College London
- Member, Honourable Society of Gray's Inn