Firearms

Graham has developed a strong practice representing police forces as well as those seeking the granting or restoration of their firearms certificates. His skills extend are of use throughout the process, including providing advice prior to lodging an appeal up to and including the final hearing. Recent examples of his work include:

- B v CCoK: appeared on behalf of an appellant whose licence had been refused on the basis of dishonesty arising from multiple identities.
- P v CCoC: appeared for the appellant against the refusal to grant a licence due to concerns arising from past offending.
- B v CoMP: appeal against the revocation of a licence following allegations of violence in a relationship.
- F v CCoS: appeared on behalf of the Chief Constable in an appeal against the revocation of a shotgun certificate.
- H v CCoS: represented the respondent Chief Constable.
- S v CCoS: represented the respondent Chief Constable.
- S v CCoK: provided advice on appeal following the revocation of certificates.

"Graham Gilbert recently represented our son in Crown Court hearing in Portsmouth. We met Graham on the day of the hearing, and he immediately put us at our ease. He provided us with clear information on what was happening and stayed in touch with us throughout the day (when the hearing wasn't taking place) keeping us updated on the inevitably slow, court proceedings. After the hearing, when we could speak with our son, our son told us how helpful and clear Graham's advice had been. Being at your son's Crown Court hearing is a stressful event but we were in great hands and Graham's counsel got our son the best result at court. Graham is an excellent barrister and we have no hesitation in recommending him." - Client

"Just wanted to thank you for all of the hard work you put into what turned out to be a far from straightforward case! I could not have asked for a more thoroughly prepared case and very impressive legal argument which eventually lead to an excellent case outcome. Your client care was first class and I appreciated the ease and speed with which I could reach you for advice."
