Land and Boundaries

Kinza also has handled a wide range of land and boundary disputes, including those involving easements, lost modern grant and prescription, interpretation of restrictive covenants in title deeds, trespass and nuisance.

She adopts a pragmatic approach when dealing with real property matters and has successfully advocated for clients in mediation, achieving their objectives in a boundary dispute without embarking upon litigation.

Recommendations

Kinza is consistently responsive, approachable and highly professional. She provides clear, practical and timely advice, often at short notice, which is invaluable in fast moving possession work. Her written and oral advocacy is concise but thorough, demonstrating a strong grasp of housing law and associated public law equality issues. In terms of advocacy, she is confident, well prepared and measured. She presents arguments clearly and persuasively and engages effectively with both the court and opponents. She demonstrates good judgment in focusing on the key issues and adopting a pragmatic approach to achieve the best outcome for her client. Her advocacy is grounded in a thorough knowledge of statutory framework, legislation and case law, which she deploys effectively and persuasively. She is also particularly strong on client care and communication, ensuring those instructing her are kept informed and supported throughout proceedings.

Kinza has excellent attention to detail and was really well prepared for each hearing in a case that was not straightforward. Her advocacy led to an excellent result for the client, particularly regarding costs.

Kinza provides very clear advice that is easily digestible for laypeople. She is friendly and approachable and is always willing to go 'the extra mile' for her clients. She is particularly adept at advocacy, and I have instructed her to attend various hearings."

"I would like to reiterate how impressed our instructing officers were with Ms Wahid's representation on behalf of the council in previous committal proceedings relating to the injunction order. Her professionalism, timely advice, and robust dealing with the legal advisor for the Defendant was most appreciated, especially given the last-minute submissions regarding capacity by the Defendant." Instructing Solicitor

"Kinza assisted BBC in achieving a great result at the recent homeless appeal. She faced some tough questions from the opposing barrister and the judge, but she remained calm, collected, and eloquently put the Council's position forward. We look forward to working with Kinza again in the future." Instructing Solicitor

"Kinza kindly volunteered to defend me at a hearing less than 24 hours before it took place. After a full day in court, she spent her evening preparing for my case. Kinza is clearly very passionate about her job and has a heart of gold. She was prompt, well-prepared, and incredibly supportive. She was well known by the Judge and a fellow solicitor there who both spoke very highly of her. Kinza is highly professional, educated, and stayed humble throughout. I can't recommend her enough!" Lay Client
