Overview

Aaron Mayers completed his pupillage at 3PB in 2021 and is now a member of chambers with a particular interest in commercial and chancery litigation.

Aaron graduated with a First Class Law degree, before obtaining a BPTC qualification and being called to the Bar in 2018. Aaron is also an ADR-ODR qualified civil mediator.

Before becoming a pupil barrister, Aaron worked within the litigation teams at Signature Litigation in London and with Baker & Partners in Jersey, where he advised on commercial litigation and trusts disputes. He retains a strong knowledge of offshore and multi-jurisdictional dispute handling and case law.

Aaron also has experience working in the charities sector and is currently a Trustee and Executive Board member at Bridging the Bar, a charity dedicated to promoting equality of opportunity in the legal profession.

Recent experience

Some of Aaron's recent cases include:

- Successfully appealing two orders on behalf of a UAE-based bank in a debt recovery dispute
- Obtaining a strike out and summary judgment application on behalf of a UK-based international consumer technology manufacturer
- Obtaining judgment and P36 costs in a fast-track contractual dispute claim on behalf of a national media publishing company
- Advising commercial tenants and homeowners in relation to claims for breach of covenants, trespass and nuisance.
