

Lucy Bill

Year of Call: 2022

Email Address: lucy.bill@3pb.co.uk

Telephone: 01962 868884

Overview

Lucy Bill is a civil barrister specialising in personal injury, clinical negligence, costs and professional negligence, acting for both Claimants and Defendants. Lucy enjoys a busy practice in Court and is regularly instructed in RTA and EL/PL matters, including fundamental dishonesty and credit hire disputes. Lucy is a persuasive yet measured advocate, with experience in successfully obtaining strike out applications, costs orders and contract unenforceability due to fraudulent misrepresentation. Lucy also successfully represented a Claimant in a recent two-day multi-track personal injury trial before a Civil Recorder, and readily accepts instructions for case management hearings, multi-track mediations and detailed costs assessments.

Lucy is additionally a member of the 3PB Inquests Team. She is adept at handling complex medicolegal issues, questioning expert witnesses and dealing with Article 2-compliant proceedings both with and without a jury. Lucy is able to deal with sensitive circumstances and represents the interests of bereaved families as well as those of interested persons, including where the potential responsibility for a death may become the focal point of the proceedings. Lucy has acted in high-profile inquests, including representing the family of Roxy Edie Paula Phillips at the inquest touching upon her death at 15 years of age when she was sadly electrocuted on the live railway tracks from Weymouth Station. The jury concluded that there were missed opportunities by Network Rail, Dorset Police and the British Transport Police to adequately search before restoring power to the lines. Lucy has also represented family members and interested persons in Article 2-compliant jury inquests involving deaths by manslaughter, as well as non-Article 2 deaths by suicide, medical complications and other unnatural causes.

Lucy has a strong paperwork practice, frequently advising on matters pertaining to liability, quantum, Part 36 offers and case management strategy. Lucy additionally accepts instructions to draft statements of case, Part 35 questions to experts and complex Schedules of Loss, including Ogden future loss calculations. Lucy additionally specialises in drafting military NIHL claims.

During pupillage, Lucy gained extensive experience by observing senior members in Chambers. In particular, Lucy drafted Schedules of Loss, observed CCMCs and witnessed formal mediations for high-value multi-track claims involving, inter alia, fatal accidents, catastrophic brain injury, sub-contractor disputes and stillbirth cases. Lucy also acted as pro bono junior counsel in a complex solicitor/client costs dispute arising from a CFA.

Outside of work, Lucy enjoys powerlifting, skiing and travelling.

Academic qualifications

- Law (LLB Hons), Queen's University Belfast, First Class Honours
- American Certificate in Business Administration, Mary Baldwin University, 3.9 GPA (First Class Honours)

- Bar Training Course (BTC), BPP University, Merit

Scholarships

- Mary Baldwin University Honours List
- British Council Study USA Scholarship
- TARGETjobs Future Undergraduate Lawyer of the Year Finalist
- QUB City Scholarship Award with Allen and Overy

Professional bodies

- The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn
- Institute of Directors in Ireland

Expertise

Inquests

Lucy is additionally a member of the 3PB Inquests Team. She is adept at handling complex medicolegal issues, questioning expert witnesses and dealing with Article 2-compliant proceedings both with and without a jury. Lucy is able to deal with sensitive circumstances and represents the interests of bereaved families as well as those of interested persons, including where the potential responsibility for a death may become the focal point of the proceedings. Lucy has acted in high-profile inquests, including representing the family of Roxy Edie Paula Phillips at the inquest touching upon her death at 15 years of age when she was sadly electrocuted on the live railway tracks from Weymouth Station. The jury concluded that there were missed opportunities by Network Rail, Dorset Police and the British Transport Police to adequately search before restoring power to the lines. Lucy has also represented family members and interested persons in Article 2-compliant jury inquests involving deaths by manslaughter, as well as non-Article 2 deaths by suicide, medical complications and other unnatural causes.

Costs

Lucy is a member of the 3PB Costs Team, specialising in civil and commercial costs disputes. Lucy readily accepts instructions across all aspects of costs litigation, including detailed costs assessments in the SCCO, costs and case management conferences, allocation hearings, wasted costs applications, costs budgeting and drafting points of dispute and replies. Lucy delivers a practical and detail-oriented approach and frequently advises on issues relating to proportionality, retainers, and CFA/enforceability disputes.