Overview

Matiss Krumins was called to the Bar in 2008 and qualified as a solicitor in 2011, specialising in public law children proceedings and judicial review.

He was senior solicitor at Birmingham City Council from 2011 to 2016 and a Principal Solicitor from 2016 to 2017, when he left to pursue his career at the Bar with 3PB.

Matiss accepts instructions from parents, intervenors, children's guardians, and local authorities.

Recommendations

"The barrister provides an exceptional level of client service, consistently demonstrating responsiveness, clarity of advice, and a pragmatic, solutions-focused approach. He is adept at managing the expectations of professional clients in highly sensitive and often urgent matters, ensuring that complex legal issues are communicated in an accessible and reassuring manner."
"His legal advice is thorough, detailed and clear. His in-depth understanding enables him to advance cases effectively."
"Matiss strikes a perfect balance between technical proficiency and pragmatic insight into his client's needs. He always delivers high quality advice and representation on high-stakes complex matters, despite very often being under significant time pressures due to the urgency of the situation. He is a safe pair of hands who can be relied upon to step up and grapple with novel and complex work without flinching."
Chambers UK 2027/Family: Children/Midlands

'Mr. Krumins is an excellent advocate, with outstanding technical legal skills and a firm grip on the evidence and issues in any case. He is also adept at providing sensible, pragmatic advice, which is extremely valuable, particularly in cases that are both complex and urgent. Mr. Krumins draws on a wealth of experience and has a very strong reputation across our whole team for being calm and reliable no matter what he is faced with. Mr. Krumins cuts to the chase and looks to resolve the key issues with a minimum of fuss, while always standing his ground. As an advocate, Mr. Krumins is effective and thorough, a really safe pair of hands for cases of all levels of complexity.'

Matiss Krumins is another notable practitioner with prowess in administrative law and judicial review proceedings - he appeared in the unusual case of The Father v Worcestershire CC, representing the local authority in the Supreme Court against a litigant in person, who sought the return of his children from a care order not through any family law remedy but through a writ of habeas corpus.

'Matiss is incredibly easy to instruct, with a natural ability to understand and execute complex instructions with precision. In court, his advocacy is both effective and calm, and when it comes to cross-examination, he is formidable.'

Local Authority X v HI and others [2016] EWHC 1123 (Fam): this is a case whereby information arose by way of a 15-year-old child's disclosure to the social worker that they did not want communicated to their parents within care proceedings. The local authority considered itself subject to a duty to disclose and the guardian sought to maintain the confidentiality of the disclosure. The court weighed the issues of relevance of the information, gravity and magnitude of harm and the rights of the individuals protected by the Human Rights Act 1998 in the balance.

Birmingham City Council v AB & others [2014] EWHC 3090 (Fam): this is a case where the father violently killed the mother. The children were initially placed with their grandmother, who sadly misappropriated £32,500 of their compensation monies. The local authority sought and were granted care and placement orders, in a case that had many complex elements.
