Costs

Paul Joseph is rated as the best costs specialist barrister in the Midlands and one of the UK's top counsel in this specialist field. He is recognised in Legal 500 and Chambers UK as a top costs specialist. In August 2021, he was appointed a Deputy Costs Judge of the Senior Courts Costs Office in London. Paul is one of the senior members of 3PB's dedicated Costs Team.

He works extensively for HM Government and, currently listed on the Attorney General's Regional B panel, is regularly instructed by the GLD's costs team on a wide variety of costs matters.

Paul dealt with, for example, all the costs work in connection with claims made by Iraqi civilians against the MoD arising out of the invasion of Iraq in 2003; and similarly in relation to the MoD's actions in Afghanistan and during the Kenyan Emergency.

More recently, Paul acted in Robin Makin-v-Ministry of Justice in which Paul obtained an Extended Civil Restraint Order and the removal of a solicitor advocate's anonymity as well as over 20 individual costs orders (of which nearly half were indemnity orders) and 10 declarations of totally without merit.

Paul undertakes all types of costs work – across all areas of law except criminal cases – such as:

- Case and Costs Management Conferences
- Allocation Hearings (and now assignment issues)
- Wasted Costs Applications
- Security for Costs Applications
- Oral reviews of Provisional Assessments
- Detailed Assessment hearings (whether in the SCCO or anywhere else)
- Drafting Points of Dispute and Replies
- Part 36 issues
- Appeals relating to costs matters, including appeals to the Court of Appeal
