Overview

Kinza Wahid enjoys a successful practice across the full range of property law, including matters that cross over into traditional chancery areas such as Trusts of Land.

Regularly acting for private individuals, companies, institutional investors and local authorities, Kinza brings a well-rounded skill set to her practice, ensuring thorough and effective representation for her clients.

Listed as a "Rising Star" barrister by Legal 500 in 2026, Kinza is a skilled advocate and an accredited mediator, who is known for her robust and tenacious advocacy and empathetic approach with clients.

In the landlord and tenant sphere, Kinza regularly handles both commercial and residential matters including possession actions, forfeiture, injunctions and disrepair.

In the more traditional land and chancery areas, Kinza has experience in trespass, easements, nuisance, right of way, boundary issues, TOLATA and cohabitation disputes.

Whilst Kinza's practice is predominantly property, she also enjoys a discrete practice in commercial law. Often instructed in contract disputes, specifically those involving equine matters. She accepts instructions in partnerships disputes and misrepresentation. She appears in the High Court (Rolls Building) to present winding-up petitions and deals with bankruptcy proceedings.

Beyond practice, Kinza is committed to advancing equality and diversity at the Bar. She sits on the EDSM Midland Circuit Committee and is often a panellist at events designed to encourage inclusivity within the profession.

Recommendations

'Kinza is very well paced, clear, and firm in court, drawing attention to the necessary legal principles. She is also very practical outside of the court room and gives robust advice where necessary.'

Legal 500 2026/Social Housing/Midlands/Rising Star

"I would like to reiterate how impressed our instructing officers were with Ms Wahid's representation on behalf of the council in previous committal proceedings relating to the injunction order. Her professionalism, timely advice, and robust dealing with the legal advisor for the Defendant was most appreciated, especially given the last-minute submissions regarding capacity by the Defendant." Instructing Solicitor

"Kinza assisted BBC in achieving a great result at the recent homeless appeal. She faced some tough questions from the opposing barrister and the judge, but she remained calm, collected, and eloquently put the Council's position forward. We look forward to working with Kinza again in the future." Instructing Solicitor

"Kinza kindly volunteered to defend me at a hearing less than 24 hours before it took place. After a full day in court, she spent her evening preparing for my case. Kinza is clearly very passionate about her job and has a heart of gold. She was prompt, well-prepared, and incredibly supportive. She was well known by the Judge and a fellow solicitor there who both spoke very highly of her. Kinza is highly professional, educated, and stayed humble throughout. I can't recommend her enough!" Lay Client
