Expertise

Property and Estates

Jack enjoys a dual property specialism in the law of Real Property and residential Landlord and Tenant law. His Real Property practice spans the full range of disputes heard in the County Court, High Court and Tribunals with a particular emphasis on Land Registration and neighbouring land disputes. Frequently, he is instructed in claims concerning agricultural land. Jack's Landlord and Tenant practice focuses on private sector disrepair and possession, a subject he has written on in the legal press. He is also instructed in social housing disputes concerning serious anti-social behaviour, harassment and committal to prison. Jack represents landlords and tenants alike and is content to accept Legal Aid and pro bono instructions where appropriate.

Land and Boundaries

Jack is highly sought-after for Real Property disputes, particularly those involving claims between neighbours and Land Registration. He has built up an extensive knowledge of the law of boundaries, covenants and easements over a decade in practice. His Land Registration work has been reported on and his written and oral submissions described as 'extremely helpful' (Tribunal Judge Robert Brown, Edmunds, Infra). Examples of Jack's Real Property work include (anonymised where required):

Edmunds -v- Unicam Holdings LLC UKFTT 01301 (PC) (s.132 & sch.4 Land Registration Act 2002; Rectification of the Register; Removal of Unilateral Notices; Fraud) Representing the Applicant in a land registration dispute concerning the removal of a unilateral notice, rectification of the Register for fraud and the statutory definition of 'valuable consideration'.
