Overview

Naomi Webber is a second six pupil in 3PB's Oxford office. She accepts instructions in all areas of civil law, with a particular interest in employment and education law.

Prior to commencing pupillage, she worked as a Judicial Assistant in the Court of Appeal, and as a teaching fellow and research assistant at University College London and the University of Oxford.

Naomi has also volunteered for the website RightsInfo.org, writing case reports to increase public awareness of human rights law, and for the Free Representation Unit, representing clients in the Social Security Tribunal.

Outside of law, Naomi enjoys running, cycling and baking.
