Overview

Criminal barrister Laura Deuxberry has expertise in criminal, regulatory, public law and quasi-criminal/civil matters.

Laura is praised for her tenacious and robust approach in court, whilst outside of court, she has an approachable and reassuring manner with clients and witnesses, with whom she is quick to establish a rapport. Laura gives sensible, realistic advice. She has an ability to manage client's and witnesses' expectations, whilst also ensuring that they feel that their views have been listened to.

Due to Laura's manner, she is able to reach agreement with her opponents which results in successful resolutions to cases that otherwise may not have been possible.

Laura acts as a junior mentor for pupils within Chambers. She also mentors students who are thinking of pursuing a career in law and at the Bar. She has appeared as a guest speaker at events and she is keen to encourage people from all backgrounds to apply.

Laura is a Level 2 Prosecutor on the CPS Advocate Panel General Crime List.

Recommendations

"Mr X has called me this morning to thank me for sending him such a wonderful barrister. He described Laura as "absolutely golden" and was very grateful for her patience and support in dealing with his case to secure an outcome that he was absolutely delighted with. For the record, I wanted to again express my gratitude for how expertly and professionally you've been able to deal with all of these cases that have required a considerable amount of patience and cross-referencing. Mr X would not have had such a good result without you having dealt with everything in such detail all the way through this!"

(instructing solicitor)

"Thank you very much for your excellent conduct of this trial, which led to very good result. Your calm and professional manner in how you handled the case and your thorough grasp of the detail assisted greatly in reassuring our client during what was no doubt an incredibly stressful time for him and his family." (instructing solicitor)

"I wanted to let you know how much I appreciated the work you went to in relation to this case and it goes without saying that the outcome was an extremely good one." (instructing solicitor)

"Laura is a lovely young woman, ideal for ladies, she is softly spoken and very easy to talk to." (elderly female lay client).

"Thank you very much for your help in this matter, kind call yesterday and comprehensive note – first class." (instructing solicitor)

"Many thanks for your help in all of this which has to be said, to be very difficult circumstances and of course your representation and expeditious notes." (instructing solicitor)
