Crime

Laura prosecutes and defends in all areas of general crime.

Laura has also defended in Youth Court proceedings. Her reassuring and approachable manner means that such clients and their parents/carers are put at ease. In the recent matter of R v LH (2019) at Basingstoke Youth Court, she represented a youth who pleaded guilty to possession of a lock knife in a public place and as a result of his plea, he received a referral order.

Laura regularly appears on behalf of the National Probation Service in breach proceedings.

Laura has defended in court martial hearings and is a keen supporter of military charities. She also spent time shadowing a prosecutor from the SPA.

During her pupillage, she assisted a lawyer at the Metropolitan Police Legal Department dealing with disclosure applications relating to linked criminal and family proceedings.

Recent cases include:

- R v HS (2020) Southampton Crown Court- ongoing, possession of Class A drugs with intent to supply
